RULLY HERITAGE TRAIL
GREEN WALK RU6

Rully sits in the centre of the Burgundy vineyards : to the North, the Côte de Beaune, to the South, the Côte Chalonnaise. Quite a few famous "crus" and "climats" (parcels of vines) surround the village, which is also the birthplace of Crémant in Burgundy. The village was built up around the source of the river Thalie, at the foot of the hills that overlook the church, the medieval chateau and the chateau of Saint Michel. Follow the hiking trail and discover Rully, nestled between town and countryside.

Rully

The sites to discover

Starting point : in front of the Mairie

3 THE THALIE SPRING

The source of the river Thalie is here in Rully. The river runs for 21.7kms crossing or passing alongside nine communes before flowing into the Saône which then joins the Saône at St-Remy. In 1883, the town acquired a house that was next to the Thalie spring in order to build a "lavoir" (wash house) and to house the fire pump.

4 IDENTIFYING THE VINEYARDS

Which are the "climats" (parcels of vines) that make up the Rully appellation? From this orientation table you can see all the places that carry the Rully name.

5 PANORAMIC ORIENTATION TABLE

This orientation table lets you read the countryside in front of you from the façade of the mediaeval chateau.

6 MEDIEVAL CHATEAU

The chateau has belonged to the same family since it was originally built, something particularly rare today. The emblem of the village, the Chateau de Rully is an historic monument which has preserved its principle aspects of medieval military architecture.

7 CHAPELLE D'AGNEUX

The chapel was built in the 13th century close to a Gaulish religious site dedicated to the goddess Epona. It is the oldest building in Rully. In 1891 the chapel was sold to a private individual and is still located on private property.

8 THE SAINT-VINCENT TOURNANTE

Since its creation in 1938, the "Saint Vincent Tournante" has taken the same form every year. This wine-makers' festival is celebrated in a different commune in Burgundy on the last weekend in January. Rully hosted the event in 1971 and again in 1998.

9 CHATEAU SAINT-MICHEL

Built between 1865 and 1868 by a financier from the Second Empire whose origins were in Chalon sur Saone, the Chateau Saint-

Michel shows influences from the styles of Louis 13th, Renaissance and Gothic. By turns a private property and a retirement home for the clergy, the chateau today is a hotel and a suite of function rooms.

10 11 SAINT-LAURENT CHURCH, SAINT-JOSEPH CHAPEL

The current church is the result of the many evolutions of a place of worship originally built in the 10th century on the same site, overlooking the village. The current façade was built after the wall of the nave collapsed in 1849.
